With great respect, Mr. Schinbeckler, the senior class of 1975 dedicates its yearbook to you. To the class of '75 you have been not only an exemplary teacher but, above all, a wonderful friend.

Dale Dewitt Schinbeckler was born January 10, 1917. He attended college at Purdue University, Iowa State and Michigan State. He was married on April 5, 1941 to Helen Edwards and now has two sons, David and Forrest. Mr. Schinbeckler is a member of the La Grange Rotary (1944-1975) and was president of the Kendallville Club in 1947.

Mr. Schinbeckler taught at Kendallville High School for 25 years before coming to Howe in 1964. His hobbies include photography, gardening and handicrafts. During vacations the Schinbecklers have traveled to the Orient, Europe and most parts of the U.S. Mr. Schinbeckler teaches Chemistry, Biochemistry and Science Survey.

Standing Proud

About the heart of this, our school,
Through many tiny intricacies,
Through times both lean and plentiful
All are, despite small difficulties,
Standing proud . . .

We offer thanks to those who give
Themselves to us, that our minds then may yield
Great tribute to them all the years we live,
To each of them within their separate field
Standing proud . . .

Emerging to the warming rays
Of manhood's long awaited summer
And spreading o'er our different ways
We shall not falter, for we're forever
Standing proud . . .

Progressing yet toward the summertime,
Through many stages, through the best and worst,
Engulfing all their minds with thought sublime,

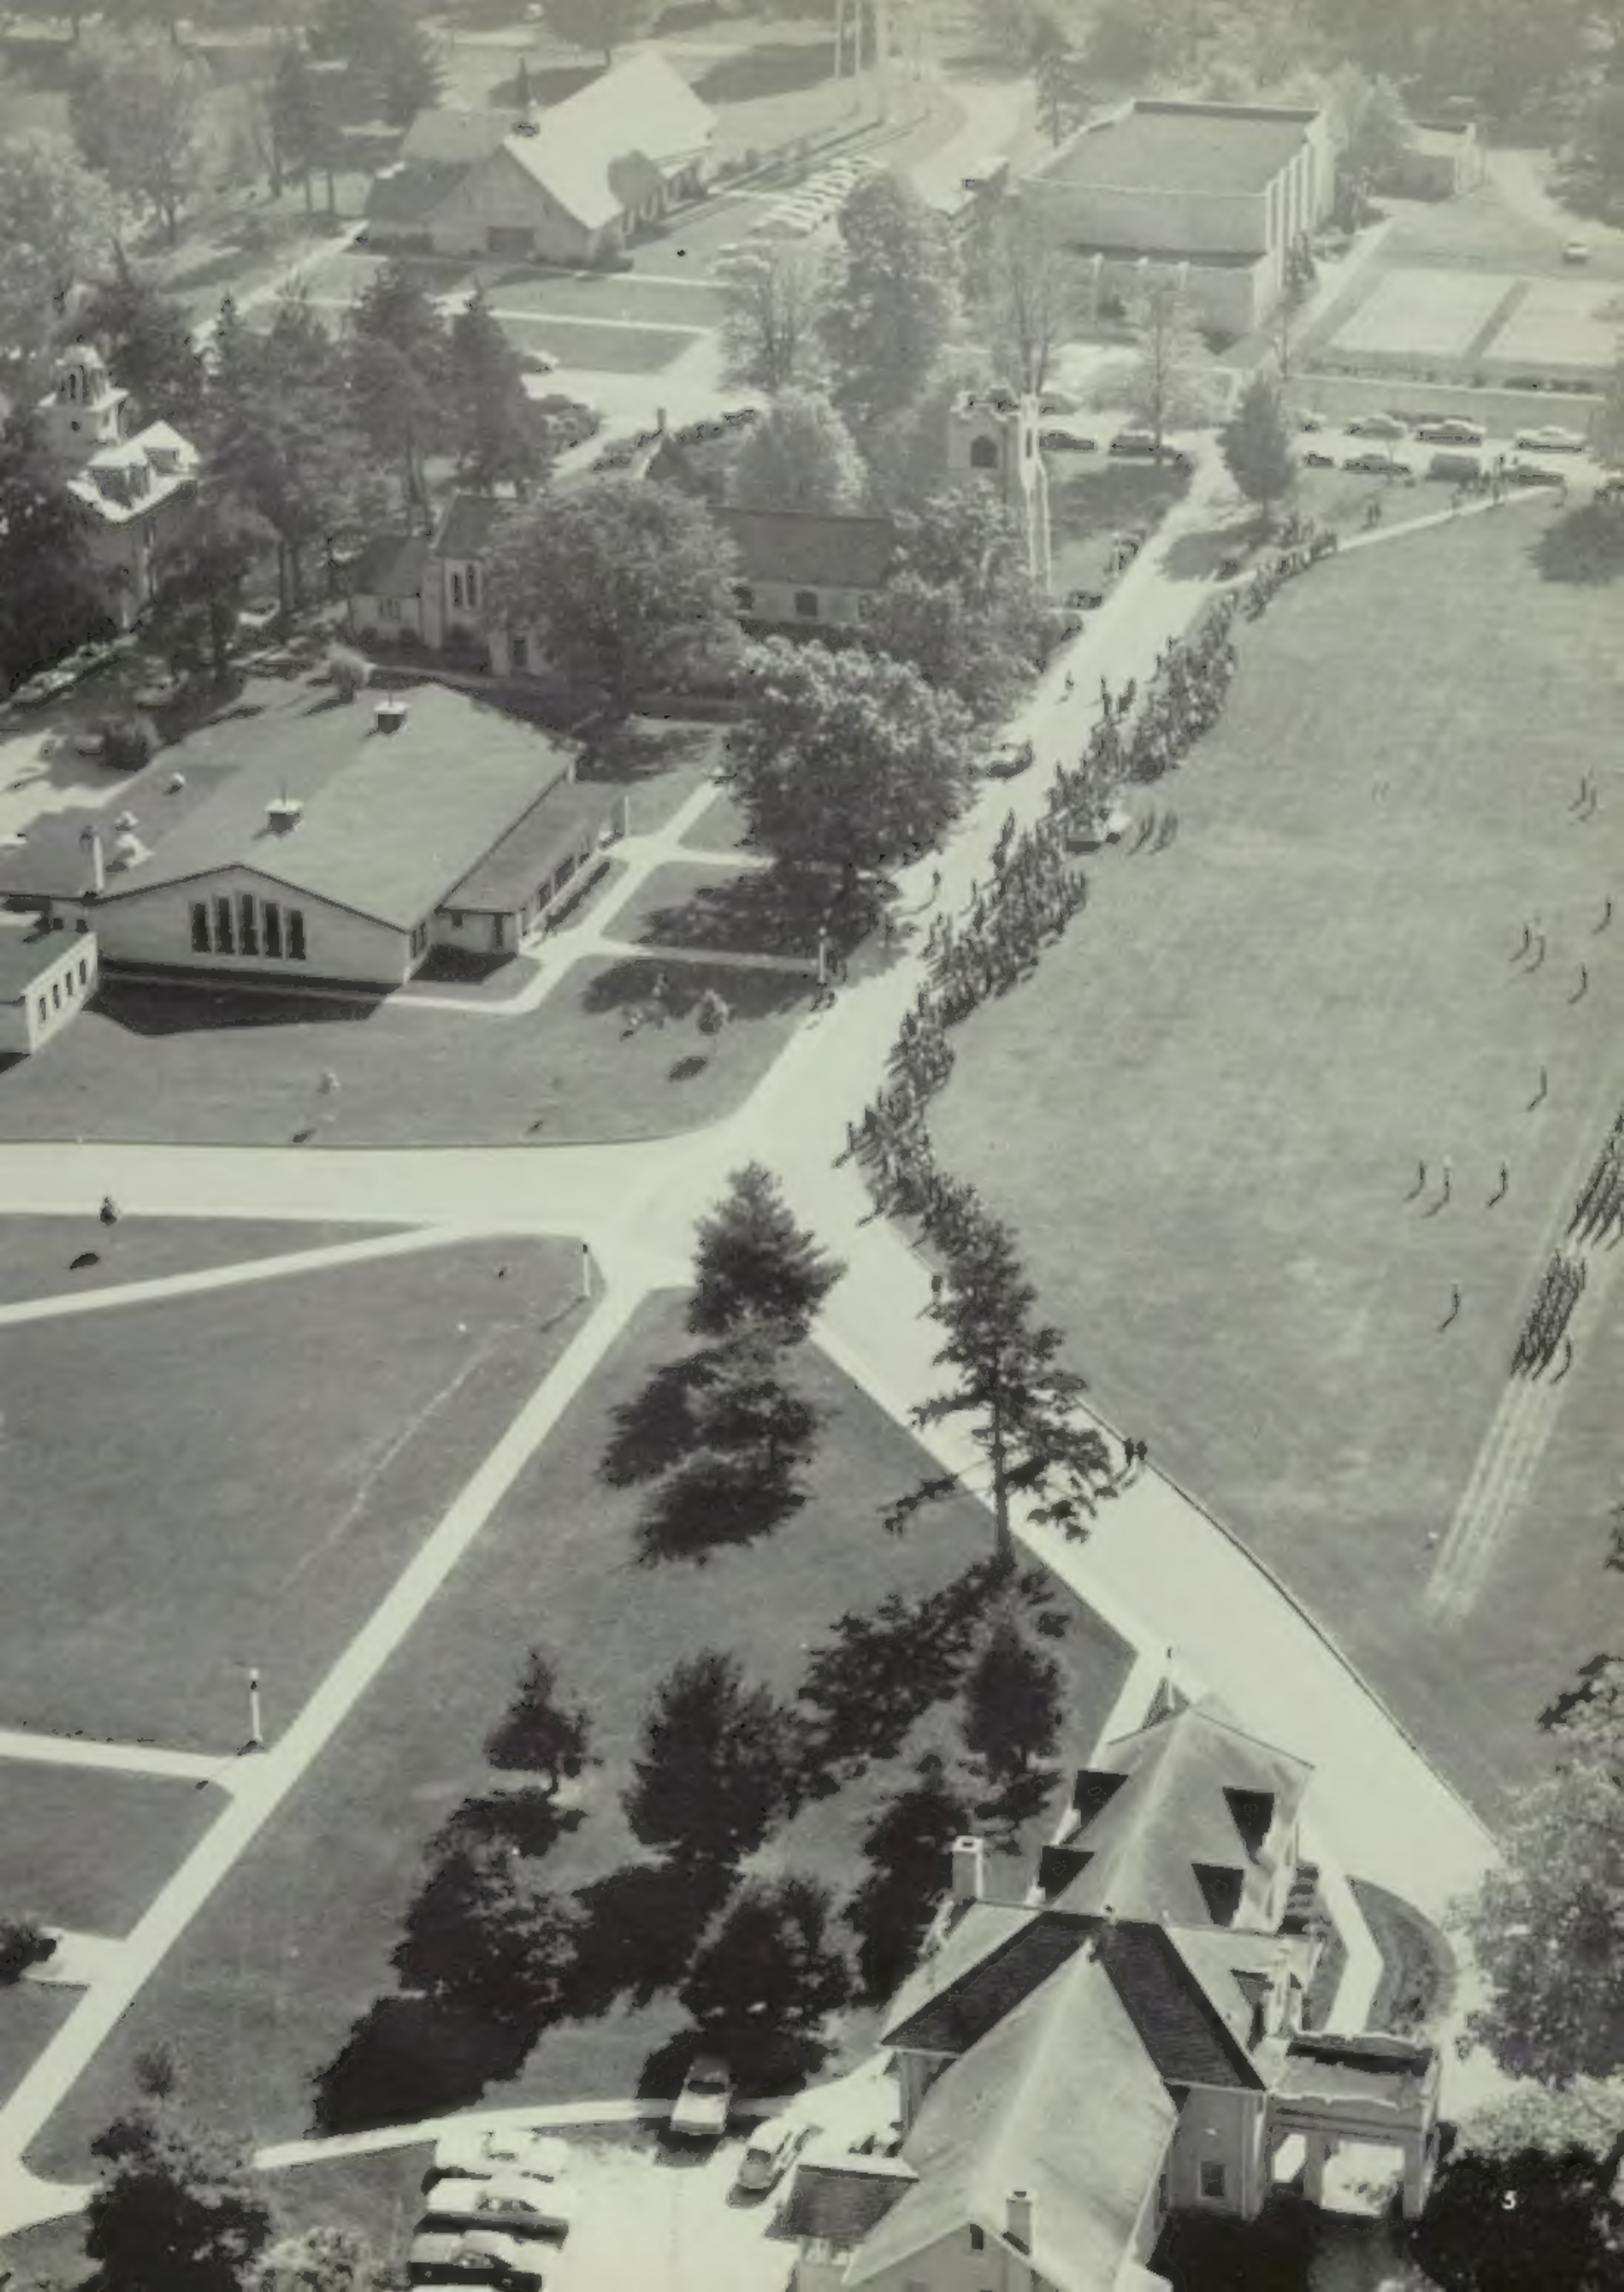

And constantly they are, from last to first,
Standing proud . . .

Through many different aspects of our lives,
From dawn to dusk, from fall to spring
We fill our days with so much more; we are,
Engulfed in such a multitude of things,
Standing proud . . .

Upon the field of completion
We toil to hear the melody
Which signals successful completion
But win or lose, we'll always be
Standing proud . . .

About the heart of this Howe Military
Though many tiny intricacies,
Through times both lean and plentiful
All are, despite small difficulties,
Standing proud . . .

As the hands of time move
Move slowly round the clock.
In our familiar Church tower,
We'll look back to yesterdays
From our place in the world's tomorrow!

Then we will remember times and
Friends and faces,
The work we did,
Things we said,
Old times,
Pals,
And places.

And e'er we turn a page,
We murmur then a prayer
For each and everyone who in these
Memories share!

Boar's Head Dinner

With the colorful and dramatic Boar's Head Dinner, Howe School continues an ancient English Christmas tradition. Dating to pagan times, when the boar was first served at Roman feasts, the ceremony became part of the Christmas festivities in the great manor houses of the Middle Ages.

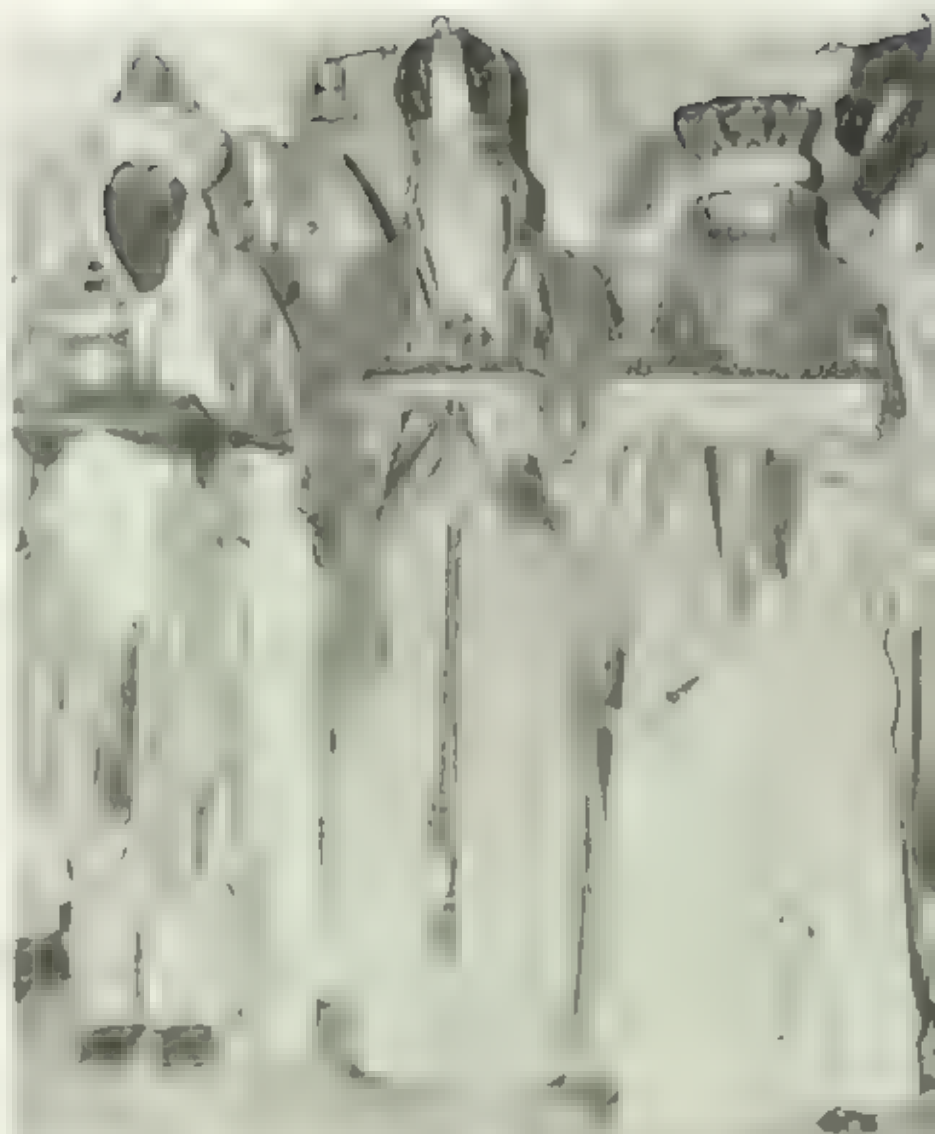

In Norman England, the ferocious boar still was sovereign of the forests, and therefore a symbol of evil. The presentation of the boar's head at Christmas time signified the triumph of good over evil. The fresh Yule log, representing the warmth of the family fireside, marks the rekindling of love as the old year passes and the new begins.

No one is sure who first planned the boar's head procession. It is known that it was in use at Queen's College, Oxford, shortly after the latter's founding in 1340. It continues to this day. During several centuries of presentation at Cambridge and Oxford, there were further added a huge mince pie and plum pudding. To the procession were added the wise men, the shepherds, slaves, beefeaters and knights.

The festival was started in America during Colonial days by the Bouton family, which settled in Connecticut, and later moved to New York. A descendant, Dr. Tibbits, became Rector of Hoosac School in Hoosick, New York, in 1888. There he established the Boar's Head festival.

The Boar's Head Dinner was started at Howe Military School by the late Colonel Burrett B. Bouton in 1937 and continued by the faculty and the late Howard W. Downs. The costumes are authentic and the meal and trimmings traditional.

LEFT: Mr. Smuz bring the Boar's Head to the Lord's table.
 RIGHT: Left to Right — Brown, M.; Olmstead, M.; Klekot,
 M. bringing gifts to the Lords. BOTTOM: Sheare, Dennis,
 Zess, Anders, and Bretzer are the torch bearers.

A Father's Prayer

Build me a Son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a Son whose wishbone will not be where his backbone should be; a Son who will know Thee . . . and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead Him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let Him learn to stand up in the storm; here let Him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a Son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high; a Son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will reach into the future yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are His, add I pray, enough of a sense of humor so that He may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give Him humility, so that He may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength.

Then, I, His father, will dare to whisper, "I have not lived in vain."

General of the Army,
Douglas MacArthur

Love and best wishes for future happiness

HIS GRADUATION DAY

The baseball glove, electric trains,
And kites that flew above the trees
Are childhood souvenirs — for now
He has no time for things like these.
For through the years of "growing up,"
Although we know not how or when,
Time performs its miracles
And changes little boys to men.
This is his Graduation Day;
Tall and erect he proudly stands,
With tomorrow's vision in his eyes,
That prized diploma in his hands.

An Inside Look at KLI

3,000 customers have a strong feeling of confidence in doing business with us.

Yes, we have a wide range of equipment capability, allowing us to be flexible in adjusting to their requirements.

Yes, we have a very modern plant ingeniously designed to handle the flow of raw materials and processed fasteners and screw machine products.

Yes, we have a sustained capital investment program designed

• Fasteners • Screw Machine Products

to improve our efficiency when ever possible.

But in and around these important factors is the most important factor of all — our staff of sales, production and engineering PEOPLE. Stated simply, they know what they're doing.

Those 3,000 outside customers have taken an inside look at KLI and apparently like what they see.

Fastenating people who know what they are doing.
